

6516207895.txt

I think that XM Raido is the best thing to come to the public. It keeps us informed about traffic jams and severe weather that may come our way so that we can make detours around the problem. Instead of finding our self in the middle of the problem. Also helps me find out what the weather is going to do when i am driving across country.